P4C

Linking to our new virtues 'Grateful and Generous' consider the below P4C question.

Is it good to get everything you ask for?

Remember to consider both sides of the argument and give reasons for your answers. Please send your thoughts to me via Dojo so I can add them to our P4C topic wall in our classroom ☺

Ongoing and online activities

The following activities are further consolidation of skills taught in class and can be completed daily (10/15 minutes at the most).

Phonics

1) Go on a sound hunt around your house or local area. Make a list of the words you can find featuring the 'ng' sound. Here is Geraldine the Giraffe practising her ng sound!

Topic Learning

Please choose one activity from the grid below to complete during the three days.

Make a music shaker using an empty bottle or small container and fill it with natural materials you might find outside, for example, sticks, leaves, acorns. What materials will you need to make louder or quieter sounds?	Make a list of different objects you find around your house and what materials they are made out of. Describe the objects using adjectives. For example a saucepan is made from metal. It is hard and shiny.	Explore painting with cool colours such as blues and greens. What happens when you mix these paint colours? How can you make them lighter or darker?
Do some yoga using cosmic kids using the link below: https://www.youtube.com/user/CosmicKidsYoga	Using a map of the United Kingdom can you find the 4 different parts that make up our country? What are they? What part of the country do we live in? What does our country's flag look like? (I've attached a template for you to colour in).	Watch this video of Tedi Twt-Sut mae'r tywydd? Once listened to, play it again but this time pause & mute each page asking the question Sut mae'r tywydd Tedi Twt? Answer the question in Welsh on each page by looking at the picture of the weather around Tedi. If they're unsure just play it a few times more to help them recall them.
